Begin brewing and allow the full brew cycle to complete. 12. Repeat steps 8 through 11 one more time. Your coffeemaker is now clean and ready to brew the next pot of delicious, hot coffee! For Programmable models (7984-3, 7985-33, 7988-33): Follow steps 1-3 above. Press the SELECT button until the red CLEAN indicator light is illuminated. For your convenience the cleaning cycle is automatic. The entire cycle will take 45-60 minutes to complete. During the cleaning your coffeemaker will: 1. Slow brew approx. 3 cups of vinegar. 2. Pause for 30 minutes (the CLEAN light will remain on to alert you that the process is active). At the end of the pause period your coffeemaker will beep. 3. After 30 minutes, your coffeemaker will brew the remainder of the vinegar. 4. When complete, the CLEAN light will turn off and your coffeemaker will automatically beep and shut off. Follow Steps 7-12 above to thoroughly rinse out the coffeemaker, or when red light is flashing (programmable models) 16 Suggested Decalcifying Interval Type of Water Soft Water Hard Water Cleaning Frequency Every 80 Brew Cycles Every 40 Brew Cycles Cleaning Indicator Light of KitchenAid Coffee Maker Won't Turn Off If your coffee maker has a cleaning indicator light, it is important to follow the directions in your Owner's Manual. The cleaning light will continue to blink for quite some time - the equivalent of three brew cycles. It should not be unplugged immediately after cleaning. If you don't wait for the entire cycle to complete and unplug the coffee maker immediately after cleaning, it will continue to blink. Unplugging to reset will interrupt the cleaning cycle, and you will have to start all over again.
